

Our Portfolio Startups have been making waves

These halal tech startups have huge potential for future growth, strong social impact, and robust business models to generate revenues.

Qara'a

Qara'a is an Indonesian app that uses AI to help its users learn how to read the Quran easily and conveniently, with 2M downloads and 700K monthly active users.

Top 3 Finalists
Continuum Spark Awards 2024
Asia Pacific region

Best Finalist
Apresiasi Kreasi 2024
Indonesia

GO BARAKAH™

Innovating Malaysia's $3.17B social assistance market with an e-voucher platform that enhances transparency between donors and beneficiaries.

Winner
World Summit Awards
Malaysia 2024

Winner
FIKRA Ace 2024

REYHUT

Led by a strong technical founder, Reyhut is transforming hospitality operations with a cost-effective self-check-in and automated operation system. It targets the $144M ASEAN mid-tier hotel market, part of the $16B global opportunity.

SYNBIOZYMES

THE PROTEIN FACTORY

A Malaysian female scientist founded this biotech startup for food security. Disrupting the $30.7B ASEAN animal feed market by converting poultry feathers into high-protein animal feed using enzyme and bacterial technology.

Empowering educators in Southeast Asia's $15B online education market with a no-code platform for building and managing online schools, simplifying payments and cutting fees.

Revolutionizing Web3 by building a technology layer for founders to create Shariah-compliant decentralized finance apps, tapping into the $80B global Islamic finance market.

Other reputable investors include

Zayn was selected for the prestigious Foundership Accelerator in Dubai, out of over 750 applicants,

Their pre-seed round raised $1 million, laying a strong foundation for growth

PilgrimPal

A personal assistance app designed to prevent missing pilgrim incidents during Hajj and Umrah. Equipped with 3D simulations and real-time navigation, partnering with travel agencies to serve the $360M market.

Part of MDEC's Digital Tourism Innovation Lab Cohort 3

Currently ongoing process to get grant from Saudi Arabia's government Monsha'at

Durioo

A subscription-based streaming platform offering halal, values-driven animated content and educational shows tailored for Muslim children.

Other reputable investors include

A gamified parenting app for building ethical leaders, targeting kids aged 5 - 17. Addressing common parenting challenges, it taps into a $5B market.

Revolutionizing global education with self-paced, research-based courses and halal certifications, targeting a $945M market.

HASAN.VC

The Next Big Opportunity Awaits

Gain Exclusive Access to the Future of Halal Investments

Get on our waitlist to gain priority access to Round 2 investments launching in January 2025, and enjoy bonus shares as well as other favorable terms for early commitment.

Click here to join the waitlist today

